

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been my privilege to serve as Sherrie Johnson's pastor for the past 18 years, and to see God work marvelously in her life. She has been a faithful member, active in serving the Lord and honoring Him with her life and talents.

God has given Sherrie a strong testimony through the personal storms she has weathered. I have watched her life as she has invested her time and resources in growing as a vocalist, and the end result is an amazing gift on the altar of service for Christ.

I recommend her to you and your church. She will be a blessing to all, especially those who are in the heat of the battle in their lives.

May God bless you and your ministry!

Respectfully Yours,
